How to Get

The bob is back! From razored layers to full

The Razor Bob

JESSICA ALBA
The star's latest look (styled here by Oscar Blandi) was actually cut by her makeup artist, Garret Gervais!

The cut Get Alba's chin-skimming, choppy bob by having your stylist razor-cut long layers into the shape for an edgier, more modern feel.

How to style Apply a light shine serum on strands before blow-drying. Next, run a flatiron over the ends and rub in a dab of pomade to give the layers a piece-y texture.

The Layered Bob

REESE WITHERSPOON
Hair pro Ruby Weiser of the Bardeen agency styled the star

The cut For Witherspoon's multilayered look, ask your stylist to cut levels throughout, with the shortest layer hitting just below the cheekbones.

How to style When you wear the look straight, wavy, this bob looks a bit of movement. Spritz a volumizing cream on damp strands and finish with a taming cream to tame
