

THE USUAL SUSPECTS

aded color is a crime. Here, some of the best-known public defenders.

- 5 Color-treated fine hair calls for GOLDWELL InnerEffect RePower & Color Live Treatment to strengthen and protect while adding volume. The leave-in formula contains penetration enhancers that maximize the intake of protein molecules. $28.
- 6 Beachgoers should pack away PAUL MITCHELL's Color Protect Daily Shampoo, which acts as a sunscreen for hair with vegetable-based conditioners and panthenol. $3.50 for 3.4 oz., $6.50 for 8.5 oz.
- 7 Newcomer MATRIX Shade Memory Sparkling Blondes Restorative System Color Enhancing Foam Conditioner has low levels of dye that deposit color depending on warm or cool tones. $17.95.
- 8 TIGI's S Factor Color Savvy Sulfate-Free Shampoo enhances hair's color, while adding shine and controlling frizz. $24.

- 9 REDKEN's Color Extend Rich Defender is a cream-based, rinse-out treatment that deeply conditions and protects color-treated hair. $14.95.
- 10 A conditioner and color protector in one, PROFOUND BEAUTY's Anatomy Priming Spray is a lightweight moisturizer and conditioner that smooths the cuticle, creating a foundation for styling. $19.
- 11 HALO's Flexible Control Hair Spray is part of a trio of styling and finishing products that includes a Detailing Pomade and Medium Hold Gel. $16.
- 12 ISO's Color Preserve Conditioner moisturizes color-treated hair, while also giving it shine with a sun-activated polymer to maintain color. $9.
- 13 KENRA's Platinum Color Care Mango Butter Moisturizer replenishes moisture that's lost during a hair color treatment. $17.